

SCHOOL REVISIONS PLANNED

ENCOURAGE ABILITY OF PUPILS SAYS SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT

Changes planned in the Wilmington Public Schools will provide more opportunities for students able to participate, School Superintendent Harold Shea has said.

Extra Classes are being planned, both evening classes and summer classes, for the student who is able to assimilate more.

Special attention is to be devoted to the procuring of lecturers having special technical and scholarly skills, in Wilmington industries, to help students who can acquire those skills and studies.

The program, as outlined by the School Superintendent, is being planned to meet the challenges of modern democracy during the 1960's.

Speaking before the Baldwin Club, Tuesday night, Harold Shea, Wilmington's Superintendent of Schools told of his plans to upgrade the schools, during the next ten years.

The underlying principals of secondary education, he said, was based on a concept of a democratic society which recognizes, respects and promotes the dignity and worth of the individual, through intelligent participation in a democratic society.

Education has the responsibility of providing learnings which will further these ideals in a systematic manner.

Chief among the values are to be found:

Respect for human personality
Equality before the law.
Equality of opportunity
Right of self-government
Freedom of conscience and thought.

Freedom of speech and action within the limits set by respect to others.

How does the public schools realize these objectives?

The educational objectives must in turn be implemented in a course of study, and in the teaching-learning situation in our schools.

They include the development of ethical character, the development of intellectual competence, including fundamental skills, methods of thinking, self direction in all subjects and a respect for rational inquiry.

The public schools must promote the development of the understandings and skills necessary for adequate physical

MISREPRESENTATION ABOUT REPRESENTATION

For the past several weeks we have been reading with dismay some of the stories in the Boston newspapers about our Representatives on Beacon Hill. To read these papers our Representatives and Senators are nothing but a bunch of greedy power and money hungry men.

The stories of course come from the 10pm vote, the day before Thanksgiving, of a $1500 raise for the legislators.

Rep. Frank Tanner (R) of Reading and Rep. Tom Donohue (D) of Woburn were in the minority group of legislators who voted against that pay raise. Mr. Tanner has subsequently told the Reading Rotary Club of his viewpoints, which were well received by that club. We think these viewpoints are important enough for some of our Wilmington organizations to invite Mr. Tanner as a speaker. They happen to co-incide with some of our own.

There are legislators who have abused their position. Of that there is no doubt. We have read of "junkets" to Florida at the taxpayers expense, ostensibly to "investigate" something, but actually to soak up a little sunshine if nothing else.

But we don't read of the serious trips, junkets if you please, that some of our legislators have made - trips which have resulted in good and wise legislation for our Commonwealth. One such trip, of which Mr. Tanner spoke in Reading, was made while Christian A. Herter was Governor of Massachusetts, and involved a long trip to such places as California and several mid-West states.

The result was a fine report and recommendations on our penal system in Massachusetts, and the proof is self-evident that many of our legislators are responsible men who unfortunately are being blackened by the antics of a few.

On the matter of pay it is our belief that our legislators were being underpaid. There are stories of high "meal allowances" and other living expenses which are basically untrue. Only in a few instances does some legislator "get away" with something. In the great majority of instances our legislators are being imposed on by the conditions of our state system.

We are in favor of the $6700 salary to our state legislators (the one voted just before Thanksgiving). We feel that they made an awful mistake in timing, and that this was caused by a sense of irresponsibility by some particular members, but to change the vote would be to penalize not only some devoted men, but the Commonwealth as a whole.

Of course it can be argued that a Legislator knows what the salary is when he runs for office, and if he doesn't like it he shouldn't run - but such an argument could dissuade some worthy members from running for office in the first place.

As things stood, before that pre-Thanksgiving vote, a Legislator had a choice between two evils.

He could devote all his time to the Legislature, and as such make less than many clerks, in addition to which he would have many unsuspected expenses.

Or he could have two jobs, and probably do neither well. Many of our Representatives and Senators have had to miss roll calls to keep up with their extra job. Such is not good for the people of this Commonwealth. It leads to irresponsibility.

Pay them for the job they are expected to do. We know that in that way we can get some good men, even though, in some districts, it is impossible to get rid of those men who are leeches on our Commonwealth.

The alternative - low pay and low class Legislators is just to horrible to think about.

THE TOWN OF SILVER LAKE

The people of Silver Lake are a tribe unto themselves. We don't mean this disparagingly we are just recognizing facts.

SUSIE'S

SONNETS

Copyright 1960 by Sylvia Neilson

THE WHITE HOUSE

Its memories,

Grave and immortal,

Will soon include

An infant's chortle.

They are just a little more independent, a little more chip on the shoulder than are the people of other parts of town - and the same thing goes for the people of Tewksbury who live near Silver Lake.

Occasionally this proclivity on their part to be independent has been put to good use, and occasionally it has flopped, but that of course is the way the ball bounces.

The people of Silver Lake were, for instance the first to organize a Betterment Society in town, and years ago they had their own Regional Library, their own Women's Club, and their own Baseball Team, all of which were wonders while they were in existence.

Back in 1920 the people of Silver Lake (Wilmington and Tewksbury) got to the point where some of them decided they didn't want to have anything to do with either Wilmington or Tewksbury.

They set up a committee of about two dozen people, and began to look into the business of having a Town of Silver Lake.

The committee used to meet in Carl Schmidt's Store, in South Tewksbury. We, as a youngster attended a few of those meetings. We can recall the Irish lilt of some of the speakers, and the heavy booming gutturals of Carl, as he spoke to the meeting.

But the idea died aborning -and there is only one trace of it left today, and that in Washington DC.

Somehow the Bureau of the Census heard about the movement, and began to collect facts and figures.

Ever since those days every Decennial Census of the United States has included the population of the area that could possibly have been The Town of Silver Lake.

The 1960 Census was no exception. A preliminary release of the final figures show:

Silver Lake (Wilmington) 2545 and Silver Lake (Tewksbury) 2109.

Those Irishmen and Carl Schmidt are long since dead, but the Government hasn't forgotten what they were trying to do.

TOWN NOTES

Tax Exemptions Please

The best story of the week is by a man who shall be nameless and who was asked to go down to the Town Hall and get a 'Tax Exemption Form' for a friend.

The friend of course was thinking of the Tax Abatement forms that are given to people who think they are over-taxed, or who have certain rights as widows or disabled veterans.

But a Tax Exemption Form is something we would all like to be able to get.

Double Whoops

Mrs Frances Gray of Clark St. wishes it were really so.

Everyone has been calling her in the past several weeks to talk about her relative Joe Bellino, of the US Naval Academy, etc. It all resulted as an error in memory on the part of the Town Crier.

Joe Bellino, a year or two ago, presented a trophy to Joe McNeil, who played football for Malden High School. Joe McNeil is a nephew of Mrs. Gray.

Frances says she would be proud to have Joe Bellino as a nephew, but she doesn't know just what Bellino would think of it.

First Snow

Let it be recorded that the first snow of the season fell a week ago Wednesday, at 10:10 am. It was a slight flurry which lasted about 10 minutes.

Sunday morning Silver Lake was about 80% covered with ice and little boys had been busy all night, according to the appearance of the ice, throwing rocks, just to see if the ice was safe.

The first skating we saw in Wilmington was also on Sunday morning, down at the little pool near Suncrest Avenue, on West Street.

Muscle Gals Needed

Arthur Pizzutti will probably have things all fixed up, before we get to press, but if he doesn't Wilmington is going to get some muscular people in the next few days.

It's all because of the new and very nice door of the new Piperidge Cleaners.

It has one of the gadgets which sits near the top of the door, and is supposed to make things easier when opening, in addition to which it closes the door automatically.

The adjustments were set when the door was installed - But - the ventilating fan wasn't running at that moment.

Now when Arthur runs that fan the door is Oh So Difficult to Open. The ladies who try to go in the new shop are pulling against a vacuum.

Why bother to buy Bell Bars when you can get your exercise at Arthur's?

NORTH WILMINGTON CENTER

December 2, 1960
Captain Larz Neilson, Editor
Wilmington Town Crier
364 Middlesex Avenue
North Wilmington, Mass.
Dear Larz:

In view of Mr. Quinn's letters in the recent issues of the TOWN CRIER, and your replies, I am certain your readers will be interested to know that Avco will not request that the extension of Brentwood Avenue be placed on the warrant for the forthcoming town meeting.

In fact, the company has never made such a request. The background of this matter is as follows:

With more than 2500 employees and virtually no public transportation, it is inevitable that we have, and will continue to have, traffic and parking problems. (The growth of our work load has meant that we have 700 more people here than were originally planned for.) The parking situation is complicated by other considerations, such as security, as you pointed out.

With the hope that we could improve our method of handling workers' and visitors' cars, Avco began a study of all of the factors in the situation, including every possible solution. This included additional use of our guard force to handle traffic during rush hours, the possible opening of previously secure gates within our property, and possible new accesses to the property itself.

In connection with new access es, Avco asked the Town of Wilmington to explore all the aspects of extending Brentwood Avenue to our property line. As I pointed out in replying to some inquiries at that time 'We have not asked that the road be opened and, if we do make such a request, it will not be until we know the results of the full exploration by the town. This investigation will look into all aspects of such a move including cost, impact upon residents of the street and anything else that is encountered.' This request for a study was just one aspect of Avco's program to gather as many facts as possible concerning our traffic and parking situation.

On the first of November we instituted certain internal changes on a trial basis to try to gain better use of our existing roadways and parking lots. Although this has created a few new problems, such as backing up traffic behind the lights at the intersection of Lowell Street and Woburn Street, it appears, on the whole, to be working out quite well. We therefore feel that the problem is reasonably well in hand for the foreseeable future and do not intend to ask the town to take any further action in connection with the extension of Brentwood Avenue.

We fully appreciate the concern of Mr. Quinn, the other residents of Brentwood Avenue and the town at large, and I hope the foregoing explains our intentions and our actions concerning this parking situation.

Sincerely,
J. R. McLeod
Manager of Public Relations
No. Conway, NH

Dear Larz

I was shocked to read of Wilmington's poor response to their bloodmobile.

The enclosed clipping show how we do it up here in the woods. Our population is about one third of Wilmington's and it is a rare thing for us not to reach our quota of 100 pints.

Sincerely,
Peggy Damon
The (North Conway) REPORTER
on Nov 24th., reported that 161 pints of blood had been donated on the Nov. 15th visit of the Bloodmobile. Ed.

Dear Larz:

I have been wondering if you know the story about how that story about 'Citizens Protest' appeared in the Crusader - the story about the proposed shopping center in East Wilmington. A lady from Strout Avenue was hired to go down to the Town Hall the night of the hearing and write up a report. After the report got into the Crusader office it was taken to one of the stores on Main Street and completely rewritten by people who don't even live in Wilmington. Please don't print my name.

Yours,
We knew it.

MRS. GEORGE SIMMONS IS PRESIDENT OF WILWOOD CLUB

Mrs. George H. Simmons, 6 Strout Avenue, was elected President of the Wildwood Parents Club, Monday night, thus ending a search for a new president which has gone on for several weeks.

Mrs. Simmons has already had assistance from several active committee chairmen, who are planning a full season for the parent-teacher organization. The Room Mother program of the club is to be re-instated, with one from each room to assist during Open House.

Ralph Ambrose, Supervising Principal of the Wildwood School was the principal speaker, Monday night, speaking on the subject of curriculum and the reading program. He spoke to an enthusiastic group of listeners.

K & H REALTY TRUST
MAY BUY IN CONNECTICUT

The K & H Realty Trust, which sought to build in Wilmington a shopping center on the Wilmington Reading line, is now interested in building a shopping center in Connecticut. Haig Adanian, one of the members of the firm, in Wilmington last Thursday, said that reception from the town officials was wonderful, in Wallingford, Conn.

In Wilmington, Mr. Adanian said, members of the firm had been in to see the Town Manager twice. Each time when they came out of the Town Hall they wondered why they had bothered to go in.

CASEY AND FIELD NAMED TO ALL STAR TEAM

Capt. Eddie Casey and Kevin Field of the 1960 Wilmington High School football squad will be named members of the First Team, of the Lowell Suburban Conference, when it is announced tomorrow, in Lowell.

No other Wilmington boys will be named to the team, but Dave Huston, far ranging end of the 1960 team will be among those who will be given an 'honorable mention'. Only four are to be so named.

Both Casey and Field were named Best Players, a week ago at the Thanksgiving Day dance following the annual game with Tewksbury, and presented with trophies by the Wilmington Chapter 106 of the Disabled American Veterans.

Field was given the Best Player of the Game trophy, by Commander Bill Lynch, while Casey was given the Best Player of the Year trophy, named after Casey's father, the late Edward Casey.

Field, a Junior, is also in the College Course, and is maintaining a B plus average. He is the son of Mr and Mrs Edward J Field of School St.

An older brother was a member of the 1948 team in Medford which played in the 'Gator Bowl' game of that year, and is now a teacher and football coach in a northshore community.

KEVIN FIELDS PRESIDENT OF ST THOMAS CYO

Kevin Fields of School Street has been elected president of the newly formed Catholic Youth Organization of St. Thomas Church, with other officers being Betty Woods, vice president, Kathy Harrington secretary, and Sheila Harrington treasurer. The CYO is meeting every other Friday, at Villanova Hall.

A dance is to be conducted on Dec. 9th., and new members will be admitted to the dance for the price of a membership ticket, $1. Tony Delavolpe is to be the disc jockey.

A semi-formal snow ball dance is being planned for the Christmas vacation. The members will be selling Christmas wreathes before Christmas.

All the public schools of Wilmington will participate, next Monday, in the Save The Children Federation Bundle Days Collection.

The federation is a non-profit non-sectarian organization dedicated to helping needy children in many countries and in the United States. It conducts an annual collection of clothing, including low-heeled shoes, blue jeans, warm coats and other essentials to keep young bodies warm.

Children of all schools will be asked to bring in clothing, which will then be wrapped and sent to the Federation.

WILLARD R. HUNT ENLISTED IN THE ARMY

Willard R. Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall E. Hunt, 99 Glen Road, Wilmington, enlisted in the Army through the Army Recruiting Office at 89 Appleton Street, Lowell.

He is following the footsteps of his brother who enlisted two weeks ago this month.

After taking the tests and the physical Willard decided not to pick any special assignment before going to basic training. He felt he would rather get his feet on the ground and at a later date apply for a school or career field.

Presently Willard is taking his basic training and will be home for two weeks leave in about eight weeks.

DECISION ON APPEAL FOR VARIANCE FOR PROPOSED GAS STATION

An appeal by the Brookline Realty Trust, for a variance for a proposed gas station to be operated by Esso, at the corner of Bridge Lane and Main Street has resulted in a decision which allows no variance in set back laws, but allows one in sign laws.

The Board of Appeals signed the decision last Tuesday.

Allowed are letters that will conform to the signs on other stations throughout the state.

Disallowed was a request for a variance allowing a setback of only 15 feet, instead of 30 feet.

Secondary Education

The students of the 1960's must be better equipped to meet the challenges of stiffer college requirements, the stiffer demands of a technological society, and the stiffer demands of our military establishments.

To meet these challenges in the Secondary Educational levels, we must:

Have flexible groupings in the 7th and 8th grade levels to permit various learning rates for the different ability levels.

Gone are the days when those children who excelled were left alone, while attention was paid to the under-developed.

We must also seek out the Honor students, and those with high achievement abilities, and encourage these to greater efforts.

We must have advanced placement programs for the pupils of top ability in English, Mathematics, History and Science.

We must have an expanded guidance and counseling service to help students and parents choose the proper courses of study.

We must introduce foreign languages in the 7th and 8th grade levels.

We must use the industrial engineers and technicians of our community as teachers to supplement our teaching staff.

Classes can be held in the evening, as a part of the evening school, which classes would only be open to those students who are ready for this type of experience.

We should introduce a high school reading program for college bound students, one designed to help them assimilate more quickly the materials in their books.

We should introduce the large group instruction techniques. Small classes are fine, as a general concept, but there are times when a large class can serve better.

We should expand the summer school program to include special courses for terminal as well as college bound students - courses that cannot be fitted into a regular school year program.

To be included in such courses are such things as typing, art, music and speed reading.

Community Support Needed

In order to achieve the goals Shea said, the support of the community will be needed.

We are not talking so much of dollars and cents, and of an understanding and sympathetic approach toward our goals, he said.

We need both intellectual and financial support, on the part of the citizens, and we need the support of the people within the School Department.

TRAILER APPEAL DENIED

The Board of Appeals, Tuesday night, denied a petition for a variance allowing a House Trailer to be established temporarily, on Butters Row. Two residents of the street were present to oppose the appeal, at the time of the hearing.

$1500 IN RARE COINS STOLEN

Rare coins, valued at $1500 in today's market, were stolen from the home of Philip Gardner, on Main Street, on Nov. 27th., by a thief who gained entrance through a cellar window.

Included in the loot were many rare US pennies, and 60 silver dollars.

EDDIE WOODS NAMED 1961 FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

Eddie Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woods of Beacon St. has been named Captain of the 1961 Football Team of Wilmington High School.

Named 'The Old Spoiler' for his ability to get through opposing linesmen and spoil plays before they got started, Eddie played part of last year and all of the 1960 season.

A Junior, he is taking the College Course.
